25 Markets

The Leslieville Farmers' Market is located on the traditional territory of many nations including the Mississaugas of the Credit, the Anishnabeg, the Chippewa, the Haudenosaunee and the Wendat peoples, now home to many diverse First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples. It has been a site of human activity for at least 15,000 years.

This is Dish With One Spoon Territory. Dish With One Spoon is a treaty between the Anishinaabe, Mississaugas and Haudenosaunee to peaceably share and care for the resources around the Great Lakes.

We acknowledge that the work of farming and food production has played a significant role in the historical and ongoing displacement of Indigenous Peoples from their lands. The systems that sustain us today were built on the dispossession of those who have stewarded these territories for millennia.

Welcome to the Leslieville Farmers' Market

At Greenwood Park

Welcome to the Leslieville Farmers' Market (LFM), operated by the Neighbourhood Food Project. We're a small and dedicated non-profit organization, but the LFM is more than just a market—it's a movement towards fostering resilient local food systems and building stronger community bonds, a cornerstone of community engagement and sustainability in East End Toronto.

At the heart of Greenwood Park, our market serves as a vibrant and festive gathering place where local farmers, artisans, and entrepreneurs can connect directly with the community. Our mission goes beyond providing access to fresh, locally-sourced produce and handcrafted goods. We aim to cultivate an environment where relationships can flourish—between the soil and the city, the farmer and the consumer, and from neighbour to passerby to visitor.

As part of the Neighbourhood Food Project, the LFM is committed to promoting sustainable agricultural practices, supporting local economies, and educating the public on the importance of food system resilience. Through our work, we strive to demonstrate how community-led initiatives can play a crucial role in combating climate change and transforming our food system, ensuring food security for future generations.

Third-Party Involvement

Any involvement from a third party in the production of products sold must be clearly disclosed and labelled. Vendors are prohibited from selling products that are solely purchased from wholesale or other retail sources.

Vendors are encouraged to include seasonal offerings that highlight locally sourced ingredients. The use of industrially processed or manufactured ingredients, additives, or unsustainable production methods is strongly discouraged.

Value-Added Products

Value-added products derived from local products, such as beeswax candles and preserves, can be sold at the Market's discretion. These products must be explicitly listed in each vendor's application.

Policy on Reselling

Any reselling of any product(s) will first result in a written warning. A second violation from the same vendor will lead to expulsion from the Market.

Special Circumstances

Under extenuating circumstances, vendors may apply to sell up to 25% of a neighbouring farmer's produce if their own produce is insufficient or if it uniquely contributes to the product mix available at the Market. Vendors are required to submit any requests via email to basecamp@leslievillemarket.com and can expect to receive a response via email.

Vendors who fail to comply with these rules may face penalties, including potential suspension or termination of their right to sell at the Market.

Sourcing - Prepared Food & Beverage

Local Sourcing

We strongly encourage all prepared food vendors to use locally sourced ingredients in their products whenever possible, prioritizing products from the Market.

Non-Locally Grown Ingredients

Products containing ingredients not typically grown locally, such as bananas, citrus fruits, cocoa/chocolate, coconut, coffee, ginger, mangoes, certain nuts, plantains, sugar, tamarind, vanilla, and various spices, may be sold subject to the following conditions:

- The product must be approved by the Market
- The product must be consistent with and within the product range normally offered and approved in the vendor's application.

Prohibited Practices

The following practices will not be tolerated:

- Use of ingredients or products containing Genetically Modified Organisms (GMOs)
- Use of conventionally grown agricultural products (excessive use of pesticides, herbicides, or chemical fertilizers)
- Use of hormones or antibiotics in livestock

- Engaging in or supporting cruelty or inhumane practices in the raising or slaughtering of livestock, including but not limited to, lack of sufficient outdoor access, use of gestation crates, and factory farming.

Crafts & Homewares

In accordance with City of Toronto regulations, The Leslieville Farmers' Market maintains a minimum 51% ratio of farmers to other types of vendors. This results in limited space availability for non-food vendors. Our selection criteria for these limited spaces prioritize:

Local Food System-Related Products

Items connected to local food systems, sustainability, gardening, or agriculture receive top preference.

Eco-Friendly and Sustainable Products

We favour products made from natural, upcycled, eco-friendly, and sustainable materials, including their packaging.

Local Handcrafted Goods
